

Round table “Partnerships between Japanese and Russian academia, business and local authorities”

25 September 2020, 15:00-18:00 (Japan time)

Draft program

Japan time	Program
15:00–15:10	Openings remarks by the Russian and Japanese moderators <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Roman RAIKIN, Vice-Rector for International Affairs Development of Altai State University (ASU) ● TBC (Hokkaido University) 2 speakers x 5 minutes (+ simultaneous interpreting) 10 minutes
15:10–15:50	Presentation of good practices of regional arrangements for training specialists Japan: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Aida MAMMADOVA (Kanazawa University) ● Noboru TAKAMURA (Nagasaki University) Russia: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● TBC: nature conservation (ASU) ● TBC: medicine, natural sciences, IT, language and culture (Kazan Federal University) Explaining <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● what specific areas were chosen for each regional arrangement and why, ● what merits they have for universities and companies as well as administrative bodies, ● how these training programs are funded, ● what careers their participants pursue, ● what impact such training programs have on regional development, ● what pitfalls and solutions need to be noted by other universities. 4 speakers x 10 minutes (+ simultaneous interpreting) 40 minutes

15:50–16:30	Q&A session, comments from representatives of other universities, government bodies and private companies (including Novosibirsk, Tomsk, Irkutsk, Yakutsk, Ekaterinburg). Time limit for questions and comments – 3 minutes. (+ consecutive interpreting) 40 minutes
16:30–16:40	10-minute break
16:40–17:40	Q&A session, comments from representatives of other universities, government bodies and private companies (including Novosibirsk, Tomsk, Irkutsk, Yakutsk, Ekaterinburg). Time limit for questions and comments – 3 minutes. (+ consecutive interpreting) 60 minutes.
17:40–18:00	Summing up and closing remarks by the Russian and Japanese moderators. 2 speakers x 5 minutes (+ consecutive interpreting) 20 minutes